ORDER OF DISMISSAL

15 Over the course of approximately three weeks, Plaintiff, an inmate in the San 16 Francisco County Jail and frequent litigator in this court, filed these nine pro se civil 17 rights cases. On May 18, 2000, this Court informed Plaintiff that under the "three-18 strikes" provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915(g) he generally is ineligible to proceed in forma
19 pauperis in federal court with civil actions filed while he is incarcerated. See Grimes v.
20 Oakland Police Dept., C 00-1100 CW (Order Dismissing Complaint, 5/18/00). Since
21 then, Plaintiff has continued to file hundreds of civil actions seeking in forma pauperis
22 status. With respect to each action filed, the Court conducts a preliminary review to 23 assess the nature of the allegations and to determine whether Plaintiff alleges facts which 24 bring him within the "imminent danger of serious physical injury" exception to § 25 1915(g). In the past, Plaintiff has routinely been granted leave to amend to pay the full 26 filing fee and to state cognizable claims for relief, but he has habitually failed to do so.
27 For example, in 2003 alone Plaintiff's failure to comply resulted in the dismissal of 28 approximately thirty-six actions under § 1915(g).

In accord with this ongoing practice, the Court has reviewed the allegations in the present actions and finds that Plaintiff alleges no facts which bring him within the "imminent danger" clause. Succinctly put, these actions make a wide variety of nonsensical and frivolous allegations about a wide range of unrelated events, including among many others, the Jonestown massacre, Viagra overdoses, the September 11 terrorist attacks, and the Oklahoma City bombings. On numerous occasions, Plaintiff has been informed that he may not proceed with frivolous allegations and he has failed to cure these problems when given leave to amend. Therefore granting leave to amend would be futile. And even if Plaintiff did amend, he would be required to pay the $350.00 filing fee, which he has never done.

11 Accordingly, this action is DISMISSED without prejudice under § 1915(g). The 12 applications to proceed in forma pauperis are DENIED. No fee is due. If Plaintiff is so 13 inclined, he may bring his claims in a new action accompanied by the $350.00 filing fee.
14 In any event, the Court will continue to review under § 1915(g) all future actions filed by 15 Plaintiff while he is incarcerated in which he seeks in forma pauperis status.

16 The Clerk of the Court shall CLOSE the file and TERMINATE all pending 17 motions.
